Retailer Comments

There is such a thing as an urban-savvy, luxury and highly capable SUV. You are looking at one right now and it's not just any SUV, it's a Range Rover. As far as premium luxury SUV go, there are Range Rovers like this Evoque, and all the others. And don't be fooled by the Evoque's size as it is a testimony to the brand's long-standing heritage. This 2018 Range Rover Evoque 237HP HSE is premium in every sense of the word. Painted Fuji White, this Evoque's clean and sleek lines are enhanced by its strong alloy wheels, privacy glass, moonroof, and fog lamps. Its beautiful Ebony interior is sumptuous beyond its size and price tag. As an HSE, this Evoque features countless amenities including comfortable supple heated leather seats, a heated steering wheel, an embedded navigation system, a premium sound system, keyless entry and start, a power liftgate, and much more. Taking to the road will always be an absolute pleasure thanks to its powerful and frugal 237-horsepower turbocharged 2.0-litre 4-cylinder engine. Its included 9-speed automatic transmission and an extremely skillful and sophisticated 4x4 system that can also take you far off the beaten path should you feel the need to explore. Having traveled only 36,889 km, as indicated on the odometer, this 2018 Range Rover Evoque HSE is every bit a Range Rover.
